sheet, it would have been difficult to foresee the results to which it would have led. When the results to which it would have led. When there is anote, however, there is fire, and in the immediate future we can foresten, not only that German policy will be directed might and main to placing obstacles in the way of Japanese success, but also that when the settlement connect, it will stirve at all hazard to prevent what the Respect considers designed and another than the settlement of the destinated for of thrist-endom. Thesi William II. recognises to warmly the admirable qualities of those whom he regards as a "scoorge of God" adds to the perils of the international situation. The revival of the spirit in which the Granders faced the Faynims will be a new and troubling alseanes in the comfertable would of to-day. The remarkable speech delivered by the Europere William to the ricertain for the Europere William to the ricertain. The treatment received by the Japanese at the hands of the sourced Power of the Continent has been a complicion that it has always appeared as though the satisfact of the Villiam control the committed of the Control of the Continent has been a complicated that it has always appeared as though the satisfact of the Continent has been a complication that it has always appeared as though the satisfact of the Continent has been a complication to the reavent and military resummancy which control the content of been funded within the pale of civilisation; that despite the perision of their naval and military organisation, the Japanese were, after all, only regarded as Deviables with a control for decoration.

But with the Kaiser it is otherwise. This dreamy man of socion, this virile mystic, grasps the secret of Japanese power. The magnificent the secret of Japanese power. The magnificent discipline of this Navy and Army, he told his recounts, "prings from patriotism and filial love." It is the sociones of all that we have counts to recognise in the word "Bankhot." Honorable brothers, let a three counts or recognise in the word "Bankhot." Honorable brothers, let a three counts or recognise in the word "Bankhot." Honorable brothers, let a three counts of the hardward of the anguest of the socion of a Palakin, as inst the Same with the socion of a Palakin, as inst the Same with the socion of a Palakin, as inst the Same with the socion of the Japanese major of whom that speach, is reported, or to recognise that here is a force before which "mightiest fleets of fron framed" and "all-shattering genu" are powerless, enter the second of a Palakin, as the the Same whose will they obey as instinct with a like spirit!

It is not, however, as brothers in arms that William II greate the Japanese with the salute dan to virtue and corrange. (FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

On the 14th of July next Colona and Chief Paymaster T. S. Coppinger, A. P. D. District Paymaster in Egypt, will go on retired pay under the age rules. Colonal Coppinger, who is one of the few purchase officers now serving, joined the army nearly 40 years ago, and was transferred to the A. P. D. in 1878. Whilst paymaster of the 24th Excinents he are serviced.

Captain C. Pierce, Royal Berkshire Begi-ment, on promotion, has been re-appointed to the 1st Battalion at Dublin.

Lisujannani Charles Howard, Int Bastalion Royal/florkshitre Raginsani, who was returned for tribl to Dishin City Bessions for an alleged assattl'in on the police, failed to turn up at the Beatines last Saturday. His hall bonds were ordered to be entrauled and a warrant was lessed to the servaice. It was stated in court than Minister. It was stated in court than Minister.

Intelligence from Esquimals, B.O., states that at the recent sale of Admirally storms, consequent on the reduction of the Pacific Squadron, way low prices were realized. For instance, 103 for 25 s, 1,500 coaling bankets only readiness £1 4s, 178 unnelized contine boxes went for £5, and other stores vessions of the comparative trifles. The Admiratly est a reserve price on the large store of anchone and chains, to purchase which a Yazke ring came all the way from San Francisco.
